The year 2020-2021 was very challenging because of the global pandemic Covid-19. The pandemic impacted student learning, as well as trips planned for this cohort. Thankfully, by the end of the school year, in July 2021, the fellows were able to take a trip to the North of Israel.

Trip to the North with Dr. Eitan Azani

In July 2021, Covid 19 eased up a bit in Israel and all the major lockdowns were lifted. The ASL Fellows were finally able to be treated to a trip up North, to the Golan Heights including Mount Bental and a delicious restaurant in Kiryat Shemona with Jonathan Davis, Osnat Iluz, Valerie Susskind and of course our wonderful guide Dr. Eitan Azani (bio to follow.)

Here are some pictures of this beautiful day.

At Mount Bental

View of Mount Bental

"Coffee Anan" Coffee shop in Mount Bental which is so high it is almost in the clouds. Anan means cloud in Hebrew. Cute play on words.

Dr. Eitan Azani giving the Fellows some historic background at the entrance of Mount Bental.

Dr. Eitan Azani

Director of Research, International Institute for Counter-Terrorism (ICT) & Lecturer, BA & MA with Specialization in Counter-Terrorism and Homeland Security at the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy and Strategy at Reichman University. He is a Colonel (Res.) in the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) with operational, research and academic experience in counter-terrorism in the regional and international arenas. He previously served as the Deputy Executive Director of ICT. As part of his position at ICT, Dr. Azani maintains working relations and advises both private and government entities on counter-terrorism issues. Dr. Azani lectures at the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy and Strategy at IDC Herzliya and additional security and organizational establishments in Israel and abroad. He testifies on the subject of Hezbollah in front of the United States House of Representatives' Committee on International Affairs as well as the European Parliament.
